26/12/1898		Stated that on the night of the murder he proceeded from his home to –Gatton and left before victims.	08:03pm
26/12/1898	MARY MURPHY	The first person she saw come in was M'Neill, this being only a few minutes after the victims left. To the best of her belief her husband was in the bedroom saying his prayers, and he	08:07pm

		afterwards came out and smoked for half-an-hour or more. He then went into his bedroom. Witness remained for a quarter of an hour or so afterwards. M'Neill had previously taken his boots off. She did not see Willie after tea. No one came out of any of the rooms. When her husband came out of the bedroom after saying his prayers, M'Neill was in his room. The Police Magistrate: You just said your husband was on the veranda smoking when M'Neill went into his room. You should take care about contradicting yourself.
26/12/1898	PATRICK MURPHY	Leaves Home	07:55pm
		The deceased caught up to and passed him, on the road about a mile on the Gatton side of their home. (Estimated speed of victims 6 mph)	08:15pm
		Passed the schoolmaster's two daughters, the Misses Wilson, the Tent Hill side of Cook's.	08:20pm
		Sergeant Arrell and Michael Connolly came along at Deep Gully, and rode about a chain behind him, all the way.	08:25pm
26/12/1898	MRS. M'NEILL	Remained up about half-an-hour after he left, and then was helped to bed by her mother.	08:30pm
26/12/1898	MRS. MARGARET CARROLL	They returned from the races in their trap in the evening, and reached Moran's paddock.	08:30pm
26/12/1898	MRS. MARGARET CARROLL	Before they got to the sliprails the three Murphy's, Norah, Helen, and Michael in a small dog-cart, came up, and passed them. It was bright moonlight. They had not then reached the culvert.	08:31pm
		Then, before the sliprails were reached, witness and her party passed the Murphy's.	08:32pm
		Then, the Murphy's, passed again.	08:33pm
		As they came near the sliprails she saw a man standing on the left-hand side as Murphy's cart passed him. He stood; looking after them, and then came towards witness's cart and passed it. He did not speak. He had a small parcel in his hand; it didn't shine, and she could not see what it was. She did not see his face. He wore a soft hat, which had the brim pulled down all round. She got a look at his back. She did not know the man. He continued to walk on slowly. She thought he looked at her. She had not seen the man since that she knew of. He seemed to be a stout man, medium height, and wore dark clothes	08:35pm
26/12/1898	FLORENCE LOWE	Came through Gatton. (Why didn't she see the victims?)	08:40pm
