

15/03/1899

EVIDENCE WALTER ALBERT COOK

At 10 o'clock on Boxing Night he heard a shot from the direction of Moran's paddock, a distance of two miles in a straight line.

EVIDENCE THOMAS N. WOODGATE

Thomas N. Woodgate, station-master at Gatton, deposed that the mail train down on Boxing Night left at 8.35 p.m. The up mail left a minute after, being thirty minutes late that evening.

Back To Gatton Murders Homepage
<http://www.gattonmurders.com/page1.php>